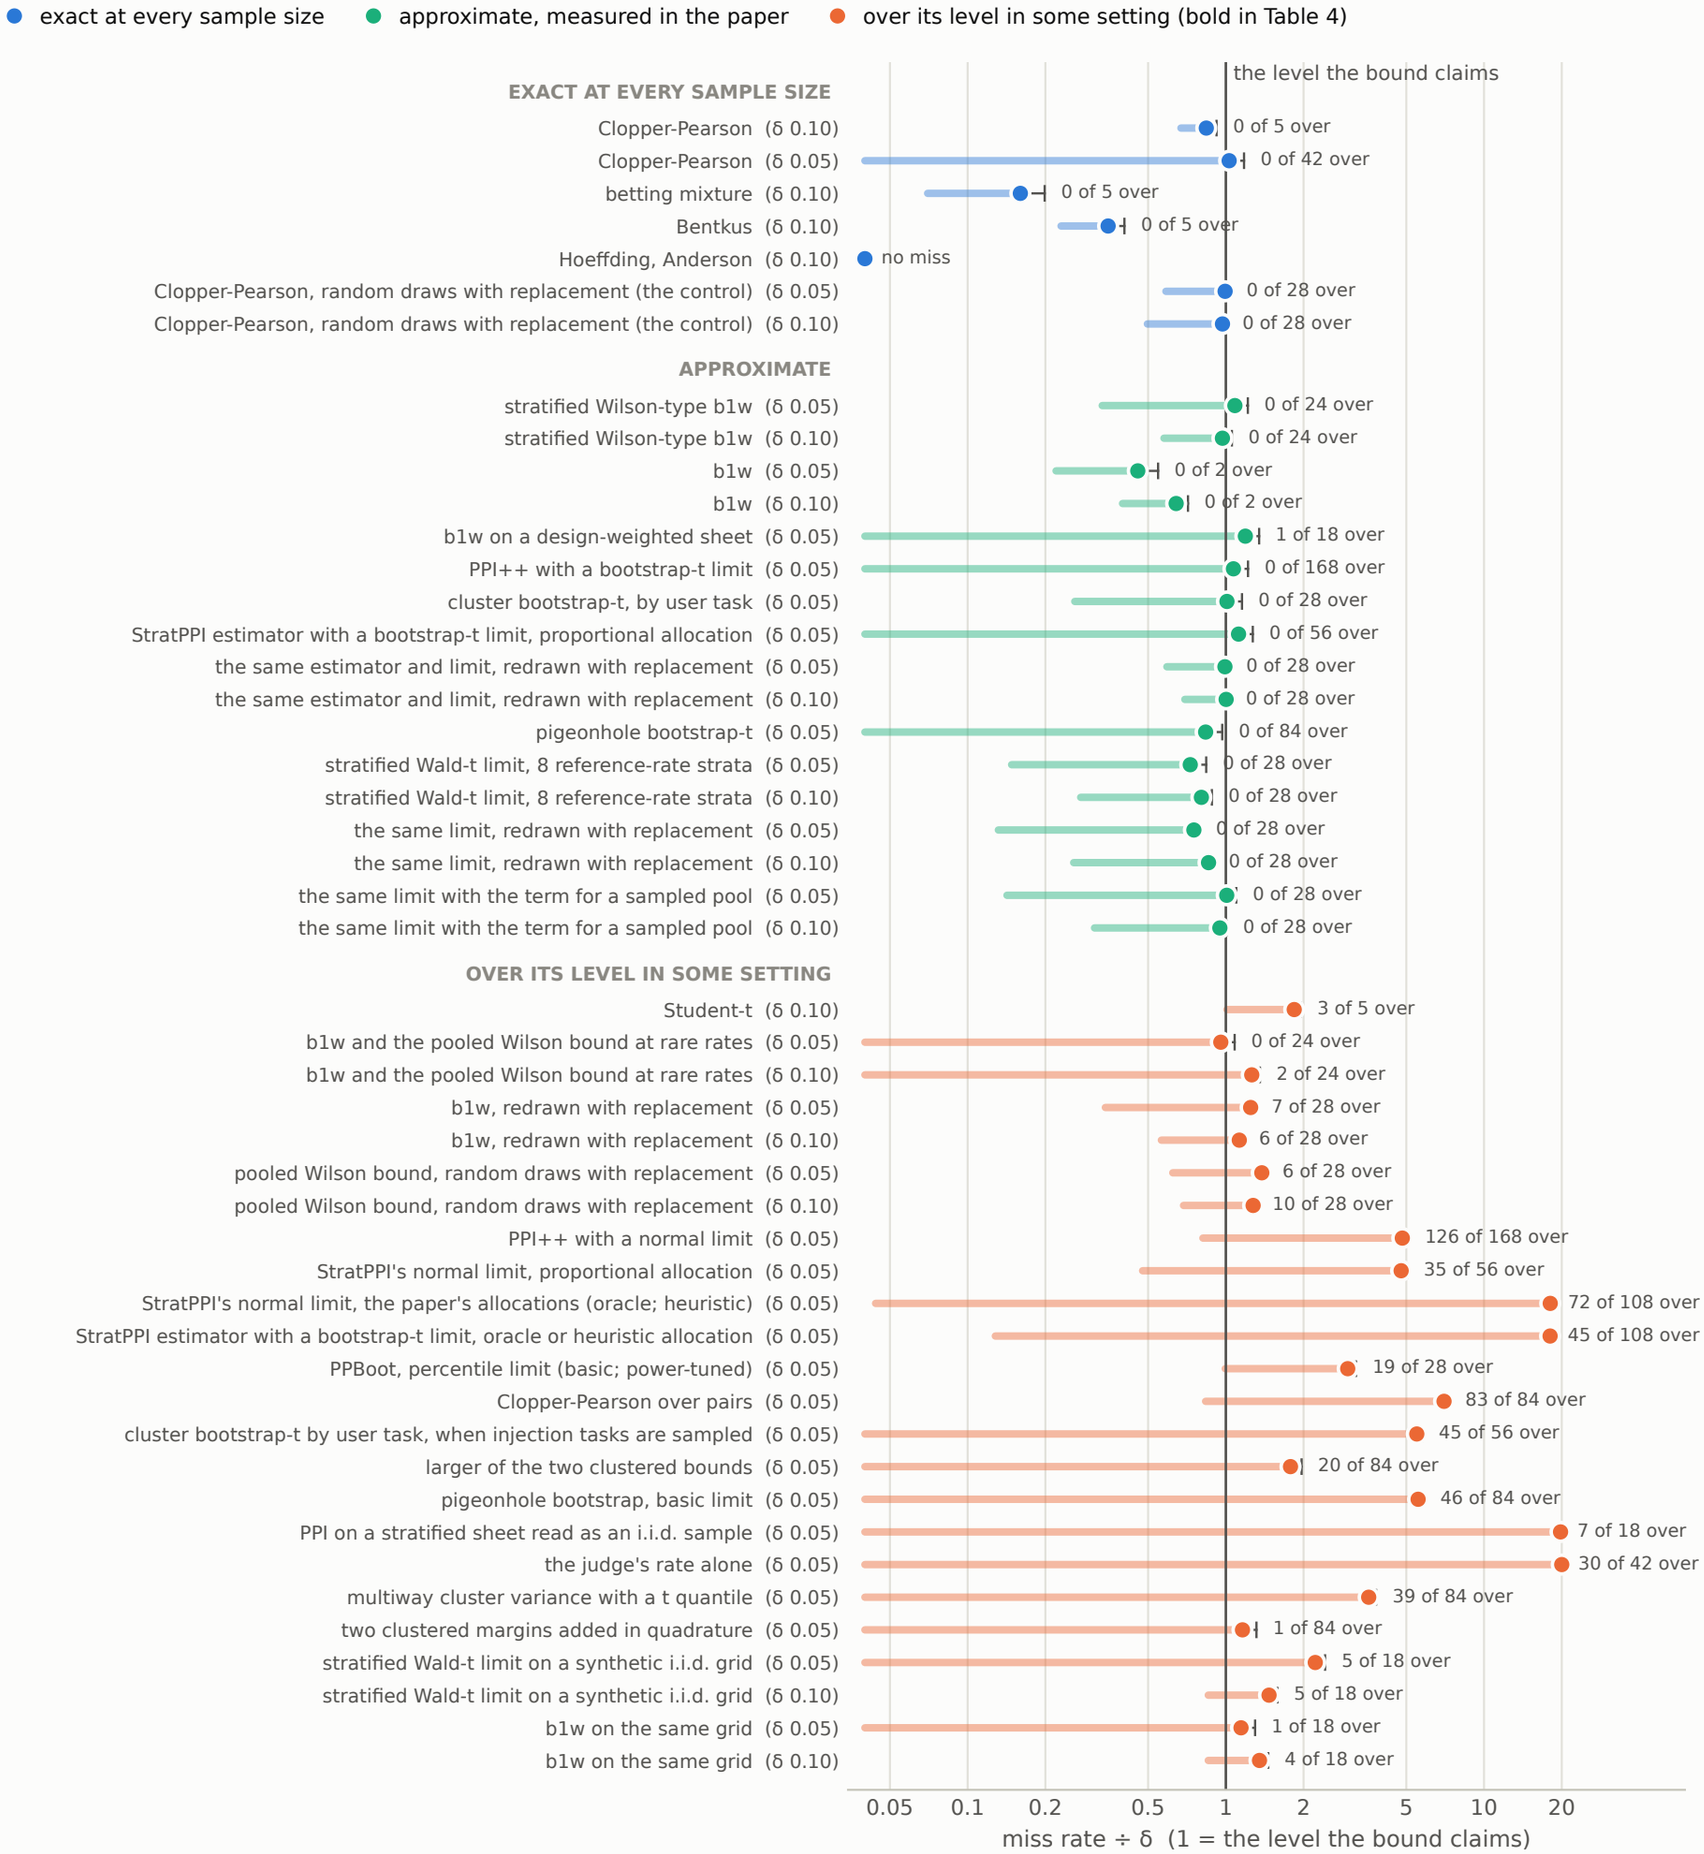
Which bounds are over their level


Each bar is one row of Table 4 at one delta, from its lowest cell to its highest; the dot is the highest, and the whisker runs to the largest upper end of a 95% interval for a cell's miss rate. A cell is over its level only when its miss exceeds delta by more than two Monte Carlo standard errors; the count beside each bar gives the cells over.